EASY TO SEARCH THE DATABASE

There are several ways to search the database:

1. Search on Brand

If you know the brand name and the type of the product you can select this option to see what documents are available regarding the product.

2. Search on Keywords

Servicedocs.com has added keywords to types to give a short description of the main features of a product.

In a pull down menu you will find a list of keywords. Add one or more to the search-query and the search result will give you a selection.

3. Search on wildcards

Enter any word as a wildcard and see what result the selection will bring you.

YOUR OPINION IS IMPORTANT FOR OTHERS!

For each type that Servicedocs.com has documents available, you can read the reactions of other consumers. So you can learn from the experiences from other consumers before you decide to buy a product. But also your opinion counts! Send in your reaction and when it will be published you help other people with your experience regarding a certain product.

Use the buttons "Read Reactions" and "Give Reactions" and make your opinion count.

FIND OUT WHERE TO BUY PRODUCTS

For each product Servicedocs.com has the feature "Where-To-Buy". Click the button and you will find resellers in your area or country. There are links to the website of each reseller so it is easy to find your best deal.

REGISTER FOR UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION

Servicedocs.com offers the possibility to register your interests. After entering some personal data you can tell us the categories of products you are interested in. This will give you some advantages. Servicedocs.com will fill the database based on the interests of the visitors registering their profile of interests. So more information will be available about products you are interested in. We will inform you regularly by e-mail regarding developments and products of the categories you have registered for. In case you choose the option "Where-To-Buy" you will be linked to the page of resellers in your country. So you do not have to select the country yourself.

LEARN FROM SERVICEDOCS.COM

Everyone heard about '3G' or 'UMTS' but do you remember where it stands for?

Select the brand 'Terminology' and select the type 'UMTS' and you can read the definition for UMTS. Often not only the definition but also extra information on the subject is published. A great tool for students and for all of us who need to refresh up their memory every now and then. Also for the subjects from 'Terminology' it is possible to use the functionality "Read Reactions" and "Give Reactions".

YOUR INFORMATION PUBLISHED ON SERVICEDOCS.COM

Maybe you have modifications, repair tips or other documents that can be of interest for other consumers/visitors. If that information is published you help out other consumers who seek information. Some hobby guys even gave us their personal paper library to publish the information on Servicedocs.com so also other people can enjoy the information they collected.
